FOR LIBERTY DAY

DRIVE ON THIRD LIBERTY LOAN UNDER WAY TOMORROW

BELLS WILL BE SIGNAL

From Two Until Three o'Clock Stores and Business Will Cease In Celebration of Event

EVENTS TOMORROW

2 p. m.—Bells will ring announcing start of Liberty Loan drive.

2 to 3.—All stores, offices, and places of business will close that all may take part in Liberty parade.

2:15.—Parade will form at corner of First and Main. All organizations and citizens urged to participate and be on time.

3 p. m.—Speaking at court house by Dr. J. E. Wolfe of Chicago.

3:30.—Public auction sale for benefit of Junior Red Cross.

8 p. m.—Speaking at court house by Hon. R. L. Brewster of Kansas City.

It scarcely is necessary to remind the people that this nation now has reached a crisis in this war where it becomes necessary for every man, woman and child under the protection of the Stars and Stripes to exert himself or herself to the limit of his or her strength or ability in order that our arms and those of our Allies be victorious for democracy and the rights of humanity.

Our nation conscripts our young men to go to Europe to fight; likewise our nation conscripts those of us who remain behind to supply our soldiers with food, with the munitions of war, and to lend our money to the government to finance the war.

Nodaway county's particular part at this particular time is in raising her part of the money needed to finance the government in this her time of need. So, beginning tomorrow and continuing for four weeks over one hundred Liberty Loan workers will devote a large part of this time, some of them all their time, to soliciting the aid of every man and woman in the county.

For one hour tomorrow afternoon between two and three o'clock the committee hopes to see every business house closed and customers invited to take part in the parade along with store keepers and clerks. "Show your loyalty and patriotism for just one short hour" is the slogan of the committee.

The merchant or business man who declines to give up one hour from business in an emergency when devotion and loyalty is most needed to be shown will be classed as a slacker and profiteer. The customer who complains at being unable to spend his money during that hour, preferring to be served at counter or desk, will be placed in the same class. With previous failures on the part of Nodaway county to go over the top in buying Liberty Bonds it is now up to us to make good on the third attempt and show more than a passing interest in the celebration of the day tomorrow.

With weather favorable all events will be carried out as planned, the parade at two o'clock being the big feature, when it is expected several thousand persons will be in line. Children from all the Maryville schools will join fraternal and civic organizations and some of them will have floats in the line.

The amount of this Liberty Loan is $2,000,000,000 and over subscriptions, with the interest rate at 4¼ per cent, and to mature in ten years. Payments can be made for the bonds with an initial payment of 5 per cent on subscription, installments of 20 35 and 40 percent would be due respectively on May 28, July 18 and August 15.

The quota for Nodaway county is $500,000 and it is predicted that the county will go over the top in a week.

The young people of St. Mary's church will present three-act comedy,

TO CONTINUE 8 WEEKS

Beginning April 16 Instruction Will be Given On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Afternoons

The Elks have offered the use of the basement of the club house to the women of the city in conducting the home economics demonstrations to be held during April and May by the national food administration under the direction of Miss Bertha Beal, county chairman.

The lessons will start Tuesday, April 16, under the instruction of domestic science teachers and graduates from the Normal and high school and will continue every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for eight weeks. The basement rooms of the Elks Club give splendid accommodations for the work and there will be no outside interruptions during the eight weeks. The entrance on the south side leading directly into the rooms will be used.

Mrs. James is vice chairman of the northwest district and Miss Jessie Parcher, Nodaway county chairman, of the Missouri division.

IT DIDN'T COST HIM A CENT

W. O. Garrett, Successful Candidate For Mayor, Didn't Even Buy Cigars—Others File Affidavits

Naturally you wouldn't expect a candidate who sought an office that paid the munificent sum of $250 a year to spend much money to get elected. W. O. Garrett, successful unopposed candidate for mayor, didn't spend a cent, according to his affidavit of election expenses filed with the county recorder today. Two other candidates, Purl Edwards newly elected marshal, and A. N. Reese, city collector, swear to election expense of $15 each, being for announcements in the Democrat-Forum and the Tribune.

3 MORE VOLUNTEER

DRS. KIRK, DAY AND COSSINS TAKE PHYSICAL TESTS

9 HAVE ANSWERED CALL

Capt. Rowlett and Lieut. Dean Will Conduct Other Examinations—Maj. Luedde Speaks at High School

Three Nodaway county physicians were given the physical tests yesterday evening for service with the Army Medical Reserve Corps by Maj. W. H. Luedde, M. R. C., of St. Louis, who was here for the purpose of securing volunteers for the next draft army. They were C. W. Kirk of Hopkins, Hiram Day of Parnell and E. C. Cossins of Burlington Junction. Physical examinations of other physicians in this district will be conducted by Capt. H. S. Rowlett and Lieut. L. E. Dean, both of whom have received commissions and are awaiting call to report for service.

With the examination yesterday of the three physicians named Nodaway is away ahead of its quota in the number who are available for military service with the Medical Reserve Corps. Dr. Chas. T. Bell, recently examined at Omaha for service, also awaits a report of the result. This makes five who have already received commissions for service and four awaiting results of physical examinations.

Maj. Luedde explained that the plan adopted by the department to secure the 6,000 physicians needed for the next draft army was not a compulsory draft of men, but a moral draft. Under the present draft regulations eligible physicians with dependants are placed in deferred classes. If they were in service they would have a salary sufficient to maintain their families. In view of the fact that the medical needs of the new army must be supplied from the civilian population a volunteer medical service corps has been provided to which all physicians who have legitimate reasons to remain at home will be assigned. Members of the volunteer corps will be provided with badges that will show the wearer is doing his bit, while those who neither enter active service who are members of the volunteer corps will be recognized as slackers.

Before leaving this morning Major Luedde, accompanied by Capt. Rowlett, visited the high school where the former made a brief talk to the pupils at assembly in which he pointed out the need for an adherence to the ideals of Christian brotherhood, justice and liberty in the struggle in which America is taking the leading part and for which the nation stands.

A BIG FIRE AT K. C.

BLAZE BELIEVED INCENDIARY DOES FIVE MILLION DAMAGE

ONE KILLED, SIX INJURED

Is Said to Have Started On Several Floors of a Building Simultaneously—Is Still Burning

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Kansas City, April 5. — Convinced that the fire last night did damage estimated at five million dollars to the west bottoms wholesale district, was incendiary, the entire detective department was put to work by Chief Flahive looking for the fire bugs. While the fire was under control this morning it is still burning inside the fireproof building of the Ridenour-Baker grocery company, where million of dollars worth of foodstuffs are stored.

One fireman is dead and six are badly injured. Over thirty wholesale houses are in the fire area, some of them totally destroyed and others badly damaged.

The fire apparently started on several floors of a building simultaneously at 5:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon and destroyed several blocks in the west bottoms wholesale district. The property loss is estimated at millions of dollars.

The tall seven-story, fireproof building of the Ridenour-Baker grocery company stood out in the flames like an island. The fire was fiercest directly behind the building and the flames beat against the sides of the building for hours, melting the windows and slightly damaging the rear of the building. The height of the building prevented clouds of sparks carried by the wind from spreading further west and igniting other buildings on the adjoining streets.

A high wind swept a shower of sparks southwest, firing old buildings, freight cars and the numerous piles that had been allowed to blow about the streets of the west bottoms. This failure to clean the trash from the streets helped to spread the fire. The burning paper was swept under walks and set fire to old buildings far ahead of the fire.

This started the fire down Ninth street and into that portion of the west bottoms where people live in crowded tenements. Out of these narrow hallways filled with smoke people began to pour, carrying whatever they could of their few belongings.

BIG DRIVE ON AGAIN

GERMANS MAKE SLIGHT GAINS SOUTH OF SOMME

FRENCH IN BIG SMASH

Brilliant Successes Follow Attacks at Arrie and Mailly, the Eenemy Having Been Pushed Back

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, April 5. — Violent fighting raged throughout Thursday afternoon and until a late hour last night between the Somme river and Luce river, the war office reported today. The Germans employed strong forces in a renewal of their assaults in the mighty Picardy battle and pressed home their attacks with determination. All assaults were brilliantly repulsed by the gallant British soldiers except at one point in the sector of Villers-Bretenneux, where the British were pressed back a short distance with them holding the village.

Washington, April 5.—That the German high command intends to force a decision on the Picardy front is the interpretation placed on a general renewal of the fighting there by army experts. The fact that the Germans have brought their big guns up all along the front in support of their advanced lines means further desperate fighting, these experts say, and that Germany is able to do this in the face of all the Allied guns and to overcome the handicap of the rain-soaked territory indicates also that she has again brought up to the front great numbers of reserves.

The Germans paid heavily for the small ground gained as massed columns of Germans were mowed down by the British artillery and the muddy field of battle over which they struggled is littered with dead and wounded.

London, April 5.—Tomorrow will be the first anniversary of America's entrance into the war and the occasion is marked by the greatest battle of this conflict and of all other wars as well. A feature of the situation is that American troops have been sent to the Picardy battle front to take part in the fighting. Although the Germans made a few important gains when they renewed the battle on the Picardy plains, the general situation today remains unchanged and to quote an expression made famous in the American Civil War, the Allied lines are "standing like a stone wall."

Paris, April 5.—A series of brilliant success have crowned the French arms in the fresh fighting at Picardy when the Germans renewed their drive, the French war office announced today. The Germans have been driven from Arrie, Coirtwood, North Moreuil and west of Mailly and north of Montrenand, the French extending their lines along these fronts.

Amsterdam, April 5.—German military experts see signs of an immediate Anglo-French counter offensive in the Picardy batttle on a big scale, according to Berlin advices today. Baron Vnardenn, one of the foremost military experts in Germany stated that Gen. Foch's new mobile army will play a most important part.

Paris, April 5.—Secretary Baker, who has just returned from Rome and to a visit to the Italian front, held a number of conferences today.

1917—LIBERTY DAY—1918

April 6 will henceforth and forever stand out in history as a Liberty Day. It was on April 6, 1917, the United States of America formally entered the war for Democracy and human freedom against the merciless rule of Autocracy, attempted to be enforced by military despotism, by which Germany would rule the world.

Throughout America — throughout all the Allied nations that believe in Liberty—there will be many observances on April 6, 1918, of the first anniversary of that important world-event.

But a more fitting observance could not be suggested than the launching, on that first anniversary day, of the Third Liberty Loan, that every true and loyal American may pledge anew his allegiance to the Stars and Stripes and to make every required sacrifice in order that, through our own brave sons and those of our Allies, victory will be won and our national ideals will prevail.

The Third Liberty Loan campaign will be launched on April 6, 1918, with patriotic demonstrations such as this nation has never before witnessed, that the people of every city, town and community may express the true spirit of a roused America. And there should be no abatement of that patriotic spirit not even after the Third Liberty Loan is achieved, as surely it will. It should continue until the boys come home from Europe singing hosannas of victory.

Kitty Gordon, the famous beauty and internationally-famous actress, is coming to the Empire theatre tonight in "The Divine Sacrifice," a new World-Picture Brady-Made in which she portrays a unique and powerful role.

"The Divine Sacrifice" is a story of mother love. It is a fascinating production, unusual and gripping. From the altogether startling opening of the picture until the smashing climax and the conclusion of the play it holds the attention unceasingly from one surprising situation to another.

Supporting Miss Gordon in this drama is a splendid cast of film favorites, all of whom are cast in roles that they fill perfectly. The photography leaves nothing to be desired and the interior and exterior sets are scenes of great beauty.

A HUN DEATH DANCE

FIGHTING ON PICARDY FRONT AS DESCRIBED BY SURVIVORS

SOLDIERS ARE DRUGGED

British Say That Germans Actually Danced In Front of the Guns—Gunners Fire Until Sick of Killing

London, April 4.—Amazing stories of how German soldiers came into battle so drunk or so far under the influence of drugs that they actually danced while approaching the deadly Allied trenches are told by survivors among the wounded from the world's greatest battle. One survivor said that the Allies knew the exact date and hour when the German offensive was to start and that they were prepared for the great slaughter which they effected. In one shell crater there were 100 Allied machine guns, and all day long the Germans sent their picked troops against this strong hold. By night the German soldiers and horses were banked high in front of the crater, but still others continued to pour in to fill up the gaps. One of the survivors of this attack said:

"Two things drove us from this trench—the enemy's numberless men and our own exhaustion from want of food. We had had nothing to eat since Wednesday night, and I got nothing until I reached Peronne Saturday, except the little of my rations that I ventured to consume at the risk of being poisoned.

"It was between 10 and 11 o'clock Friday morning when the two advancing columns threatened to take us on the flank from either side that we began to leave the trench, and as we left we continued to enfilade them with our fire and reduced their numbers while our own ranks were getting thinner and thinner as we retired to St. Elmo, fighting all the way, sometimes hand-to-hand.

"We then decided to make for Saulcourt and reorganize there. Our company, along with a few of the Leicesters on our left, were reduced at this time to between 30 and 40, so our captain divided us into four groups, he taking charge of one and two sergeant-majors and a sergeant taking over the other groups. Each group took a different route.

Hundreds Blown to Pieces.

"As we retired we continued to take toll of the advancing column, which closely pursued us, while every few minutes we could hear our mines blowing up, tearing great holes in their formation.

"Our party, in charge of a sergeant-major, reached Saulcourt, but I did not hear what happened to the three other parties for I was knocked out by a bullet in the arm at Villers-Faucon. At Saulcourt another division took over the rear guard action from us and we passed through their ranks to the rear, walking, our wounded making for the casualty clearing station at Peronne, three miles back.

"On the way we saw our heavy artillery coming into play. Our division had ten divisions thrown at it. A battalion on the extreme right was badly cut up and the last we saw of them they were engaged in hand-to-hand fighting with two or three battalions of German infantry and cavalry.

"The division which took over the fighting from us repulsed four cavalry attacks.

"A sergeant of a regiment attached to the Twenty-fourth division, which held part of the front between Peronne and St. Quentin, considered that the enemy, in spite of his great numbers, could not have broken through this sector but for his gas attacks.

Many Were Young Men.

"I talked with the wounded of six divisions and they all agree it was impossible to hold the front lines under the weight of the enemy's numbers and gas shells. All agree that in the German storming waves there was a big majority of young men.

"The enemy used for the first time a certain amount of dye in his gas shells. This dye stained the craters caused by the shell's explosion. As gas hangs around the craters for a few hours the dye stain was intended apparently to act as a warning to the Germans to keep clear of them as they advanced.

"An artillery sergeant told me that his battery faced with open sights masses of Germans advancing at short range and literally cut lanes in their ranks. The battery continued to fire until the enemy got within 200 yards, and then got the guns away. I was also told that there were some Germans who actually danced in front of our machine gun fire as though they had been drugged, and others who walked as if drunk. No living creature could have faced such terrible fire if they had not been either drugged or drunk. Our machine gunners fired until they were sick of killing."

Among the latest wounded arriving are South Africans, including officers who were gassed. They describe a terrible fight at Deville wood where the South Africans held three enemy divisions for 24 hours. They say the gas mist was so thick that advancing masses in close formation could not be seen until within twenty yards. A gas called "blue cross" is a new kind and is odorless. The enemy also used smoke barrages.

IN THE SPRING

will be the great test of a life and death struggle on the Western front. In the everyday walks of life, it is the spring time that brings ill health. One of the chief reasons why the run-down man finds himself in a bad state of health in March or April, is because he has spent nearly all his hours for the past four or five months penned up within the walls of house, factory or office. It is the reason for our diminished resistance—that is, lack of out-door life, coupled with perhaps over-eating, lack of good exercise, insufficient sleep, and constipation. In other words, we keep feeding the furnace with food but do not take out the "clinkers," and our fire does not burn brightly. Always keep the liver active.

There is nothing better for health than taking an occasional mild laxative, perhaps once a week; such a one as you can get at any drug store, made up of May-apple, jalap, aloes, (sugar-coated, tiny, easily taken), which has stood the test of fifty years of approval—namely, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. But for the "Spring Fever," the general run-down condition, the lack of ambition, the "blues," one should take a course of treatment every spring; such a standard tonic as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, now to be had in tablet form in sixty-cent vials. Watch the people go plodding along the street. There's no spring, no vitality. A vitalizing tonic such as this vegetable extract of Dr. Pierce's gives you the power to force yourself into action. The brain responds to the new blood in circulation, and thus you're ready to make a fight against stagnation which holds you in bondage. Try it now! Don't wait! To-day is the day to begin. Gain a little "pep," and laugh and live. Vim and vitality are the natural out-pouring of a healthy body. It does not spring up in a night. Try this spring tonic, and you gain the courage that comes with good health.

THE GREAT WAR HAS MADE CIGARETTES A NECESSITY.

"Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the now famous "toasted" cigarette—LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something homelike and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This homelike, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the "slogan" that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys.

Styles Straight from the Centre of Fashion

Fifth Avenue is the centre of the fashion world and the eyes of American women turn to it, as a flower to the sun. VERITE Suits make Fifth Avenue fashions possible for all our customers. She who would be modishly dressed at a moderate price will find them eminently satisfactory as will she to whom style and smartness are all-important.

Strictly and smartly tailored is the first suit, with pockets and self cloth buttonholes made buttonholes. The pockets in the jacket and the two-piece skirt are triangular in shape affording an interesting detail that is very smart and absolutely new.

Of trieotine is the second model, a smart peplum jacket in pointed outline with an interesting side closing. There is a long flat collar of the suit fabric and an overcollar of silk in contrasting color. The smartly fitted sleeves have a cuff bottom finish at the wrist that is very swagger. The skirt is a two piece model with one pocket and the natural belt front.

The very popular ever acceptable navy serge was used for the third suit, a braid bound and buttoned trimmed model with a smart vest and collar of fancy cotton galvedine vesting. The skirt is in two pieces, admirably designed as are all the VERITE models and yet not sacrificing comfort for fashion. It is completed with pockets and a belt.

In these times of stress the "cheero" spirit is essential. Every woman owes it to herself and her friends to look as well as possible. Many helpful style hints are given in the VERITE fashion letters written each week by Miss Edith M. Burtis, former fashion editor of The Ladies' Home Journal. Ask for a complimentary copy in our coat and suit department when you come in to see the new VERITE Suits.

THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. Godden Tells How It May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." — Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptons as heat flashes, nervousnsss, backache, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complications present themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. The result of forty years experience is at your service and your letter held in strict confidence.

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

INLAND EMPIRE GETS READY

Two Hundred Grain Elevators In the Northwestern States Being Rushed to Completion Before Harvest

Portland, Ore., April 5.—One hundred and twenty-five grain elevators are being rushed to completion in Washington, forty in Oregon and thirty-five in Idaho. Most of them are being built by wheat ranchers, though in some cases railroads and communities are giving financial assistance.

Individual farmers and ranchers are also building storage bins for the temporary holding of grain after it is harvested and threshed. These individual accumulations of grain will then be hauled to the grain elevators by auto trucks, and from the elevators will be moved to tidewater by the railroads. The grain will be handled in bulk throughout and in this way the expense and loss of time in sacking will be avoided. This is the contribution of the great "Inland Empire" to "war efficiency" and the nation's grain supply.

"TWO BITS A DAY—THE PATRIOT'S WAY," WINNER

Los Angeles, April 5.—"Two bits a day—the patriot's way," was the prize-winning slogan in a contest conducted bya local bank. Five thousand patriots participated in the contest. "Win the war, bit buy bit," won the second prize, and "Every miser helps the kaiser" won the third prize.

Springfield, Ill., April 5.—When the inlet to the lagoon in Washington Park here became frozen during the extreme cold weather the pond became a solid mass of ice. It contained hundreds of beautiful fish which were frozen and when the thaw came they arose to the surface and were washed ashore. The banks were literally covered with fish and it required a force of workmen an entire day to remove them.
